

Cypriot Dances

On Friday March the 11th, Faneromeni Gymnasium students performed some Cypriot folk dances for our German partners. Since our topic relates to culture, they performed dances that reflect the rich traditions and heritage of the island. Students put on traditional costumes and danced and of course our German partners danced with them . It was an unforgettable experience for all of them!!

The Erasmus+ team

